

Minister's Message of Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs on occasion 17 March the National Journalism Day

Minister's message of Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs on occasion 17 March the National Journalism Day

March the National Journalism Day congratulate for all committed journalists for the values, 17 benefits and honest reporters.

Newsmen are the voice of nation. So, this is newsmen who are seeking to figure out the truth nationally and internationally. They uncover the inappropriate work of people, fighting against corruption and injustice, and take difficult responsibilities in order to facilitate and public awareness of society.

I am deeply thankful as a responsible of Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs from dearist journalists, national and international media, that always help for heirs of martyrs and people with disabilities. Moreover, I am hopeful that respected journalists will increase the announcements and broadcast the voice and requirements of heirs of martyrs and people with disabilities and pay more attention for this group of people in order to get more respect for rights of heirs of martyrs and people with disabilities.

In the hope of life safety and freedom for journalists of Afghanistan.

Professor Hamidullah Farooqi
The Acting Minister for Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs