

International Women's Day!

Press Announcement of the Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs on the occasion of March 8, the International Women's Day!

On Monday, March 8, 2021, the government and people of Afghanistan are proud to celebrate International Women's Day that Afghan women in all three forces of government work tirelessly for peace, development and prosperity. Afghan women have always shown through history that they can overcome all problems and challenges and play role of men in every situation.

Afghan women in the decade of democracy are also working coherently and purposefully for a prosperous and free Afghanistan in order to provide social justice and rule of law in their country. Their presence in the ranks of the country's security and defense forces protects the sovereignty and independence of Afghanistan. Their presence in body of peace negotiation means stabilizing the position of women and preserving the achievements of two decades, also their presence in other parts shows their ability, reliability and commitment for progressing of country.

The Leadership Board of the Ministry of Martyrs and Disabled Affairs congratulate all Afghan women, especially Afghan women and girls with disabilities, on March 8, and celebrates this blessed day.

Undoubtedly, there are problems and challenges facing capable women with disabilities, but the ministry is committed to overcoming existing challenges and providing more opportunities and facilities for them.

With respect
